

Speakers BIO:

Fouad Kraishan, CPA, CVA

Managing Partner
FKAC Auditing & Consulting

Fouad Kraishan is the Managing Partner of FKAC an Auditing and Consulting firm in Abu Dhabi. He is a graduate from Duke University with MBA degree, a CPA with over 20 years' experience, and a business & tax consultant. He advises multi-national investors on business formation, tax structuring & planning, identifying strategic partners. He has Organized and presented Seminars on different topics including US Taxes for Individuals & US Businesses abroad, and Business set-up comparison on various free zones and jurisdictions.

He is a former CFO for a United Nations Program in Jordan, a former CFO for an Accrediting Organization in Washington, DC, He is a Co-founder and a Board Member of the Arab Governance Center in Jordan, and a member of the American Institute for Certified Public Accountants.

Joseph Siegmann, Esq.

International Tax Attorney

Joseph Siegmann specializes in US tax planning and compliance for US individuals living abroad, foreign businesses looking investing in the US and US business investing abroad. He has also has experience with the US estate tax. Mr. Siegmann earned an LLM in Taxation with a concentration on international tax from Boston University School of Law, a JD from The George Washington University Law School and a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in International Relations and Political Economy from James Madison College at Michigan State University.